big twins joined mobb deep in the studio to record the joint for their sixth album. guest appearances from prodigy, big shug, and havoc, and production by 40 cal, this track is raw with that classic pair of scratches by the legendary dj premier and the bumpin' ambience that make this track such a classic track. big twins was born and raised in queensbridge projects and has always been around the mobb deep empire but there are so many artists who have come through the 'hood who influenced him and he still holds them on a high level today. the young infamous rapper jumps back into the mobb deep studio to break a classic mobb beat down with prodigy and havoc. the theme on this one is that of a tough guy/bad ass rapper coming out of new york. one of the best ebonics in the game and a perfect track for big twins to showcase his new skills as a solo rapper. it's been a minute since big twins has dropped a solo album and, as always, the mobb are ready to work on a classic mob banger that will have fans ready to step up to the plate. big twins takes the role of announcer in his newest project, phantom of the opera, where his name, like the main character in the classic disney film, is pretty big in the mobb environment. the track features prodigy and havoc as well as producer the alchemist who is known to be one of the best in the game when it comes to producing beats. this track is a real classic and i would say the best mobb deep classic so far. since i made my label debut on the 1st infantry featuring shuggy and prodigy i saw there was a way to really get my name out there because they both are well known so i knew i could back it up at radio. i picked up the numbers and people were actually looking forward to hearing my album and seeing me at the shows with them. the only problem is that i only got one song on my album back then and it was a headliner but now i have three songs. my album is still definitely coming out but we got more songs that we've finished just been waiting for the right time to put them out. like on the 1st infantry the album was originally supposed to have watch your back, but they had to have somebody else voice the song because i couldn't keep up with the beats. so now i am back doing my thing and you'll definitely be able to catch me and hold down the towers on the new album.
